Pediatric Traumatic Injuries: Subtle Signs & Significant Finds
Catherine J. Goodhue, MN, CPNP
Trauma Program/Division of Pediatric Surgery

Disclosures
• None

Objectives
• Discuss common mechanisms of injury in pediatric trauma and likely subsequent injuries
• Review subtle signs and symptoms that may be overlooked
• Describe potential complications of missed injuries
Mechanisms of Injury

External forces
Internal forces
Blunt vs penetrating

AUDIENCE QUESTION #1
Waddell’s Triad

- Bumper vs femur and torso on same side
- Child is thrown, lands on opposite side of head

Assessing the Pediatric Trauma Patient

Case Study #1 - ZZ

- Case presentation
- Audience questions
- Discussion
- Key points
Case Study #2 VM
- Case presentation
- Audience questions
- Discussion
- Key points

Case Study #3 - NN
- Case presentation
- Audience questions
- Discussion
- Key points

Case Study #4 - MC
- Case presentation
- Audience questions
- Discussion
- Key points
Case Study #8 - SS

- Case presentation
- Audience questions
- Discussion
- Key points

References

References

References