

Reasons You Should Join a Professional Organization

- Professionalism — Employers value our credibility, professional guidelines and policies
- Education — We're your best source for education to enhance and grow your career
- Networking — Peers from your area and from around the country can help you improve
- Recognition — Opportunities to become a leader and enhance your resume

Benefits You'll Get at NAPNAP

Membership

- Join colleagues in your local area for educational events and social gatherings through one of 50 local chapters and an e-chapter
- Receive breaking national and local child health and advanced practice nursing news with highly rated NAPNAP Daily News
- Enjoy discounted prices on liability, health and disability insurance, and peer organization memberships and more
- Get publication discounts from AAP and Springer.
- Enjoy a 20 percent discount on Danskos shoes. Enter here to shop and receive your discount.

Education

- Access expert-developed, evidence-based discounted or free on-demand CE courses, including hard to find pediatric pharmacology, at PedsCESM from The Leader in Pediatric Education for Nurse Practitioners[®]
- Attend our highly-rated, CE-packed national conference and new specialty symposia where members get discounted registration rates
- Stay up-to-date with evidence-based resources and access to scholarly clinical information in our highly cited Journal of Pediatric Health Care
- Get clinical practice information from Contemporary Pediatrics online or via mobile app

Advocacy

- Help shape the future of child health and APRN practice by advocating for federal and state legislation in our improved Advocacy Center
- Participate in our Child Health Policy Learning Collaborative and access free advocacy resources

Practice

- Check out our position statements on significant child health and advanced practice nursing issues
- Access important practice resources and have your questions answered
- Learn how to land your ideal professional role through NAPNAP's online career resource guide and Career Connection APRN job center

Community

- Communicate with APRNs in your chapter or special interest group about key issues affecting your patients and practice using the latest in discussion forum technology in our online community, TeamPeds: Member Network
- Broaden your experience and expand your network with our special interest groups
- Acknowledge a colleague whose done exemplary work in their field as a speaker, role model or otherwise for our Member Spotlight